By signing an application for or using the Debit Card, you agree to be bound by the provisions of this Agreement. ("You," "Your," and "Yours" refer to each person who signs an application for or uses the Debit Card). This disclosure also sets forth your rights and obligations as a user of Republic's electronic funds transfer services. It is also a statement of Republic's rights and obligations as a provider of electronic fund transfer services.

CONSUMER LIABILITY

Tell us AT ONCE if you believe your Debit Card or Personal Identification Number (PIN) has been lost or stolen, or if you believe that an electronic fund transfer has been made without your permission using information from your check. Telephoning is the best way of keeping your possible losses down. You could lose all the money in your account (including your Overdraft Honor amount). If you tell us within two (2) business days after you learn of the loss or theft, your loss will be $0 if someone used your Debit Card or PIN without your permission. If you do NOT tell us within two (2) business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your Debit Card or PIN, and we can prove we could have stopped someone from using your Debit Card or PIN without your permission if you had told us, you could lose as much as $500. If your account statement shows transfers that you did not make, including those made by card, code or other means, tell us immediately. If you do not tell us within sixty (60) calendar days after the statement was mailed to you, you may not get back any money you lost after the sixty (60) calendar days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from taking the money if you had told us on time. If a good reason (such as a long trip or a hospital stay) kept you from telling us, we will extend the time periods.

LIMITATIONS ON USE OF YOUR DEBIT CARD

When you want to use your Debit Card to purchase goods or services from a merchant or company or to make cash withdrawals from a financial institution, that merchant, company or financial institution may be required to obtain authorization for transactions over a certain dollar amount. As a security measure, we may limit the amount which may be withdrawn from your checking account by the Debit Card over certain periods of time. The use of your Debit Card may otherwise be limited by us at our discretion, and the privilege of using your Debit Card in no way constitutes an absolute right to withdraw funds from your checking account through the use of your Debit Card. If a transaction is approved, we reserve the right to place a hold on your checking account or your Debit Card for the approved amount.

This means we may not approve subsequent transactions and we may not pay other items drawn on your checking account even if the approved transaction is not completed. We will have no liability to you if, as a result of holds placed on your checking account when we approve any authorized use of your Debit Card, we refuse to pay any check, draft or other item drawn on your checking account. We will also have no liability to you if we do not authorize your use of the Debit Card for any reason.

There are limits on the number of transactions you can make and the dollar amount you can withdraw from ATMs each business day. The default limits for each account are Point of Sale $500 and ATM Withdrawal $510 except those listed below. 3. If you are attempting to draw against funds deposited in an ATM before the amount of your deposit has been manually verified by us and credited to your account.
4. If the transfer would exceed your Overdraft Honor limit.
5. If the ATM where you are making the transfer does not have enough cash.
6. If the ATM was not working properly and you knew about the breakdown when you started the transfer.
7. If circumstances beyond our control (such as a fire or flood) prevent the transfer despite reasonable precautions that we may have taken.
8. If the funds in the account have been offset by Republic in payment of a delinquent loan or if the funds have been attached or otherwise proceeded against us as a result of a lawsuit that someone has brought against you or against a joint depositor on your account.

IN CASE OF ERRORS OR QUESTIONS ABOUT YOUR ELECTRONIC TRANSFERS

Telephone us at: 1-888-584-3600;

Or write us at: Dispute Operations

Republic Bank, 601 West Market Street, Louisville, Kentucky 40202

As soon as you can, if you think your statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer listed on your statement or receipt. We must hear from you no later than sixty (60) days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared. Tell us your account number.

1. Describe the error or transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
2. Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

If you tell us orally, we may require you send us your complaint or question in writing within ten (10) business days. We will tell you the results of our investigation within (10) ten business days after we hear from you and we will correct any error promptly. If we need more time, however, we may take up to forty-five (45) calendar days to investigate your complaint or question. If we decide to do this we will re-credit your account within ten (10) business days for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If your written complaint or question involves a transfer resulting from a point of sale debit card transaction, our time periods shall be ten (10) business days, and ninety (90) calendar days in place of forty-five (45) calendar days. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within ten (10) business days, we may not re-credit your account. If we decide that there was no error, we will send you a written explanation within three (3) business days after we finish our investigation. You may ask for copies of the documents that we used in our investigation.

MERCHANT DISPUTES

If you have a problem with property or services purchased with your Card, you must first try in good faith to return them or give the merchant a chance to correct the problem before we can help you resolve the problem.

DUTY TO COOPERATE

If you report any unauthorized transaction on your account, you agree to cooperate with us in our investigation of your claim. This includes submitting, upon our request, a written statement containing whatever information we reasonably require concerning your account, the transaction in question and the circumstances surrounding the claimed loss. Your failure or refusal to cooperate with us in our investigation may impede or limit the scope of the investigation, making it more difficult for us to determine that an unauthorized transaction occurred.

OVERDRAFTS

Your Debit Card is NOT a credit card. If any draft originated by the use of your Debit Card results in an overdraft on your account, you will be notified. You agree to make immediate payment to us of the amount of such overdrafts together with such service charge or fee as set in forth your account Agreement. If your overdraft is paid through your Ready Reserve account with us, you agree that the payment of the overdraft by transfer from your Ready Reserve constitutes a cash advance and you will make payment of such cash advance under the terms of your Ready Reserve Agreement. Please refer to our established fee schedule for rate of charge.

CLOSED ACCOUNTS

You agree to pay us immediately for the amount of any drafts originated by the use of your Debit Card that we are unable to charge to your account because it is closed or funds are otherwise unavailable. In such event, you also agree to discontinue the use of your Debit Card immediately and to return it to us.

CANCELLATION OF CARDHOLDER PRIVILEGES

We may refuse to issue a Debit Card and we may revoke your Debit Card privileges with or without cause or notice other than that required by federal or state law. Your Debit Card remains our property at all times and may be repossessed by us at any time. Upon cancellation of cardholder privileges, you must surrender the Debit Card to us or our authorized agent upon demand or knowledge of cancellation. You agree not to use or attempt to use an expired, revoked or otherwise invalid Debit Card. If the Debit Card is used other than as permitted by this Agreement, we may, at our option and without waiving any rights, recognize the transactions and debit or credit your account accordingly. The cancellation of Debit Card privileges, by you or by us, does not affect other rights and privileges under your account Agreement.
