

General Guidelines

- Contribute to Kentucky, Indiana, Ohio, Tennessee and Florida-based non-profit organizations that serve needs and benefit the people living within Republic Bank's service area.
- All donation requests must be submitted in writing, on the Corporate Donation Request form, available at www.republicbank.com
- All donation requests must be made at least two months before funds are needed.
- Donate to charitable non-profit organizations only, not individuals.
- Organizations must have 501 (c3), 501 (c4), or 501 (c19) letters from the IRS.
- We will provide support to organizations that serve a wide, varied constituency.

Generally, organizations and activities meeting the established criteria will fall into one of the following categories:

- Education and Youth Programs
- Family and Community Welfare
- Civic Projects
- Healthcare and Human Services
- Performing Arts and Cultural Activities
- Recreation and Preservation Programs

Limitations and Exclusions

- We do not fund organizations of a controversial nature.
- We will not provide support for a political candidate or organization.
- Republic Bank does not contribute to individuals in the community.
- We do not fund general operating expenses.
- A contribution does not include buying ads in a book or posting a sign at a sports field. These and other like requests are advertising and will be considered under the advertising budget.

Publicity

Republic Bank would appreciate efforts to publicize its dedication to reinvesting in the communities that we serve. We welcome any recipients of donations to submit news releases and organize photo opportunities for the press. A copy of the press release should be shared with Republic Bank prior to publication.
